

Gastroretentive drug delivery systems are designed to prolong the gastric residence time of drugs, improving their absorption and bioavailability. They can enhance drug efficacy, reduce dosing frequency, and improve patient compliance.