

Days passed peacefully until one faithful day..and unexpected guest came..accusing Charlotte of things* she didn't do and making her look like the jealous villain..ignoring Charlotte completely..she's Xeno childhood best friend..someone he kinda used to love..but they weren't in a relationship..and a gentle woman who needs attention and protection...she knows he's married..but she doesn't care she just wants him..and their families said she had to stay in his house after coming abroad..they still want her to ...be his wife..they're even preparing for the wedding..and their families encourage her