

Moving to Maine, Ehrenteich took two "jobs to make ends meet—a weekend job in nursing home and a full-time job in a house-cleaning service. At Merry Maids, the cleaning service, the economics were as follows: the customer pays the service $25 an hour per cleaning person; the service pays $6.65 an hour to each cleaner