

Social media is an internet-based form of communication. There are many forms of social media, including blogs, micro-blogs, wikis, social networking sites, photo-sharing sites, instant messaging, video-sharing sites, podcasts, widgets, virtual worlds, and more. One of the most beautiful and exciting social networking programs is YouTube because it contains a lot of excitement, fun and benefit. Also, no one denies that YouTube has added a distinctive color to the Internet space, allowed communities to share their concerns, allowed many scientists to spread their knowledge, and created millions of job opportunities for people in different ways. However, it remains to remember that YouTube is a double-edged sword. Different ages
