

A Mysterious Death! The cook prepared delicious meals for Melanie's friends. They ate lunch together, and studied for their Maths exam a little. After her friends went home, Melanie decided to surf on the Internet. She signed in her facebook and read the comments on her photos. Melanie went to her cousin's house and came back home at 10 pm. At 10.30 pm, the maid found Melanie dead in her room. That afternoon Melanie came home from school with her two best friends, David and Christine. Then they played some games and chatted for a while. The detective minimized the number of suspects to five. A few minutes later, her cousin Tess called to invite her dinner. Her family was devastated by this mysterious death. They decided to hire a detective to solve the case. According to the detective, these five suspects were the maid, the cook, her friends David and Christine, and her cousin Tess
