

The client described a residential architectural design with a unique and innovative concept.– Detailed drawings were produced using AutoCAD with technical accuracy.– A comprehensive site survey was conducted for the most efficient and aesthetically pleasing location.– Conceptualization was done using 3D Max drawings to emphasize the innovative design features.– A design concept was developed, ensuring compatibility between the client's vision and the site conditions