

This work can be extremely useful to industries that need to transform their traditional SC into the greener SC. Since the SMEs cannot eradicate all the barriers simultaneously they should be ready to afford time to eradicate them one by one. The future studies can address more factors by including the missing factors from the social and economic dimension.