

In my view social media negatively affects teenagers because they are addicted to it distracting them disrupting their sleep exposing them to bullying rumor spreading and unrealistic views of others peoples lives the risks might be related to how much social teens use but this society has its positives and negatives which most likely affect teenagers such as suffering from anxiety and depression lack of communication with the outside world observing of others and looking at manifestation of luxury and others