In methane (CH4), carbon forms four bonds with hydrogen atoms.So, in methane, all four carbon–hydrogen (C–H) bonds are identical sigma bonds.These bonds are formed by overlapping atomic orbitals, specifically the 1s orbital of hydrogen and the hybridized orbitals of carbon.

lakhasly.com © تم تلخيص النص بواسطة موقع لخصلي