

Dear Recruiter good greeting Subject: Applying for a job...and skillsI achieved With my colleagues during a practical period in different departments and branches gains for the bank I was working for, represented by gaining the trust and satisfaction of customers, which contributed to the demand for the bank, which achieved profitability and a good reputation for the bank.This letter confirms the enthusiasm and desire to join your team in a job.and.....and