We aim to create an electronic application with unique features that includes all students of Al–Sharqiya University of all ages and academic specializations, so that it encourages them to move towards independence, financial freedom, and the development of their personal skills and inclinations.