

I visited the Jeddah city a month ago on a school trip. The first thing we went to was Manarat Jeddah School. It was a very large mall, so I spent long time looking at the objects and things in it. Then we went to the water park. Then we went to Al Baik to order, and then we returned by train as we went. It was a very wonderful city. The water park was very wonderful.