

Gossip is the act of spreading rumors or information about someone that may or may not be true . It often involves discussing personal or private matters about others without their consent . Gossip can be harmful and hurtful , as it can damage relationships . It is important to be mindful of the impact gossip can have on others and to avoid participating in spreading rumor