

Consistency: Design principles provide a framework for creating consistent designs across different elements of a brand, product or service. Aesthetics: Design principles help designers create visually appealing designs that can make products and services more attractive and appealing to users