

Oliver was a kind and friendly student. Max was shy and didn't know anyone. He sat alone at recess while the other children played. He introduced himself and asked Max if he wanted to play soccer with him and his friends. Max smiled and agreed. Oliver introduced Max to his friends, and soon, they were all playing soccer together. One day, a new student named Max joined Oliver's Class. Oliver noticed that Max was sitting by himself.