

This image shows how the artificial neural network work, where each neuron has multiple inputs (X),
(each input multiplied with a weight (W