

With lightning speed, news spreads in the world we live in, so we are aware of what is happening in every corner of the world. Biased news leads to creating rumors, which leads to strife, disagreements, fighting, and more generally to depression and psychological disorders. Moreover, the job of the media is to carry the news instead of fabricating it, as it is like a mill that grinds everything that is put in its hopper. The truth is that global realities have become an issue that affects the lives of all people, not just in the area in which it occurs. Through the media, it is able to enhance global understanding and peace, and international relations. We resort to the media to know the incidents that affect our world. From this perspective, it can be said that the media is the world's psychic, as its voice sometimes seems louder .than thunderclap
