

Procure and maintain medical units Collaborate with healthcare providers to deploy the units at their sites Train healthcare professionals to operate and use the medical units Manage and update electronic health records and data Ensure compliance with regulatory standards Monitor and maintain the quality and performance of the medical units