

Among the most influential nineteenth century philosophers is Friedrich Nietzsche (1844–1900), whose work, though not systematic, covers a great number of concerns ranging from the function of language .to theories on myth