

THE RIGHT CHOICE??The story goes that in the fifteenth century, in a tiny village near Nuremberg, Germany, lived a family with 18 children. German Artist Durer (1471–50 F??Note: Albrecht Durer is a famous artist, no historical confirmation for this inspiration which appears to have been recently invented) No brother. I can't go to Nuremberg. It is too late for me. Look, years in the mines have done to my hands in every finger have been smashed, and I have been suffering from arthritis so badly in my hands that I cannot make delicate lines or drawings with a pen or a brush. No, it is too late."Albrecht's etchings, his woodcuts, and his oils were far better than those of most of his professors, and by the time he graduated, he was beginning to earn high fees for his works. Albert said, "I'll go down in the mines. With my earnings, I'll support you while you attend the academy for four years."
