

Business management is carried out across many sectors, in most towns and cities and within many different types of organisation. You could choose to specialise in a particular sector, such as IT or healthcare, or in a particular area such as sales or marketing. You may have the option of travelling and working for short periods in the overseas divisions of your company, or you could apply for a permanent overseas transfer or to a new company. There are also opportunities to move into consultancy work, providing advice to a range of companies. Working overseas is possible if you work for an international company. As a result, there are many possibilities for career development
