

My favorite possession is a ring and it's important for me because it's a gift. My grandmother gave me it 4 years ago. I've had it since I was twelve years old and I've never stopped wearing since I got it. That ring has a little star in it, which has some glitter on it