

It is a branched, herbaceous plant ranging in height from 0.6 to 0.9 meters, with a somewhat hairy, smooth texture. The leaves of Ocimum basilicum are simple, opposite, and ovate, measuring 2.5–5 cm or more in length. The stems and branches are typically green but may sometimes appear purple