

School is an educational institution where students acquire knowledge and skills. It is a place where students attend classes to learn different subjects such as mathematics, science, history, and literature. Schools also encourage students to participate in extracurricular activities, such as drawing