

Aminopropyltriethoxysilane (ACEP): The slides are dipped in the dilute ACEP solution in acetone (2%) and then dried before using. The positively charged slides are also excellent for lifting frozen section tissues.