Technologies for Secure Online Transactions: o The website uses SSL encryption for secure online transactions, with additional layers like factor authentication and tokenization implemented to protect customer details.