

The Young Thoughts Program, also known as the Khawater Program or the Thoughts of Ahmed Al Shugairi, it's an educational and religious program composed of 11 sections delivered by Saudi presenter Ahmed Al Shugairi. Depending on the season, the show was broadcast on a variety of television stations, including Al-Resala, Iqraa, MBC, and others. The show covered reissues told to youth, the Arab and Islamic societies. It achieved great success and popularity among Arab youth owing to the simplicity of the methodology and dependence on the kinetic application and the practical manner.