Bias and Discrimination Algorithmic bias: it can may be harmed for some groups by the AI tools used in social media recruitment that boost or make biases bigger present in training data. Protected characteristics: Social media profiles often show information about race, gender, age, or religion. Which would lead to conscious or unconscious bias in hiring.