

The Arabic language is an ancient language with distinct characteristics, etiquette, and morphology. It originated in the Arabian Peninsula and is considered the mother tongue of Muslims