

Ahmed: My parents gave me SAR 30,000 for graduation. Ibrahim: Wow! What are you going to do with all that cash? Ahmed: I don't know. I'm going around in circles about it, driving myself and everyone else crazy. At first I was going to do something really indulgent with it, like take a vacation. I was ready to book it, but then I got cold feet. Ibrahim: Why? I think a vacation sounds like a great idea. You've worked really hard for four years. You deserve a break. Ahmed: That's true. But, on the other hand, I don't want to spend all that money on something that will be over in a week. So, then I was thinking of buying something useful, like a used car. Ibrahim: That's a good idea. Ahmed: Yeah. It would be a great convenience to have a car. But, at the same time, I'm used to taking public transportation, and I really don't mind it. Frankly, I can't think of anything that I really need. So maybe I should put the money aside for a rainy day. Ibrahim: Well, yes, I suppose the alternative would be to just put it in the bank until you need it. Ahmed: Right. But then again, what's the point of having money if you're not enjoying it? Maybe I should do something indulgent with it– like take that vacation. Ibrahim: Now I see how you're driving everyone crazy
