

Online marketing or web marketing involves promoting products and services through platforms. It includes tactics, like SEO, social media promotion, email campaigns, content creation and paid ads. The aim is to connect with audiences attract visitors to websites or online shops and convert them into customers or clients.