

Un-employment refers to involuntary idleness of resources including manpower. So one among the objectives of state policy is to make sure financial condition which means absence of involuntary unemployment of any type