

Tourism is at the top of the pillars on which the Kingdom's Vision 2030 depends, as tourism contributes to diversifying the sources of the national economy, and tourism is one of the most important alternatives for post-oil economies