

Business management is an essential part of any successful business. It involves making decisions, setting goals, developing strategies, and managing resources to achieve those goals