

Windows and Lighting: Majlis rooms usually have large windows or decorative lighting, enhancing the elegance and comfort of the space. Features: Luxurious seating with couches, carpets, large tables, and often intricate interior decor like chandeliers and artwork. Usage: Found in larger villas or palaces, ideal for hosting large community events or high-profile guests. Layout Considerations: Shape: Majlis rooms are typically rectangular to allow for easier seating arrangements and better flow of guests. Features: More elaborate seating arrangements, possibly with low tables and decor elements. Features: Grand design, elaborate seating, large windows, and sometimes even separate male and female sections (common in some cultures). Can accommodate 8 to 12 guests comfortably.
