

The story begins in London where Fogg challenges the members of the Old Gentlemen's Club that he can make a trip around the world in this allotted time. Fogg embarks on his epic journey accompanied by his butler, Pespas, and pursued by the stubborn police inspector Detective Fox. The duo travels across continents and oceans and encounters many adventures and obstacles during their journey. During their journey, they face many challenges and problems such as sea storms, accidents, language problems, and chases.