

Direct benefits of reduction in rejection rate of samples include decrease in the length of stay in the ED
due to early results