

Managing your fear of an animal Many people are scared of birds, I am one of them. I read about useful birds that pollinate seeds and help plants grow Next, I started going to places where birds came in flocks, to watch them closely. Finally, I visited a bird's colony and had a parrot stand on my hand, it was weird but amazing at the same time. The result is worth it!