

conclusion : The conclusion of Chapter 1 reflects the clear vision to enhance the health of cats and improve their quality of life and summarizes the general overview of the efforts made and the expected achievements. This part highlights the goals and importance of the application in promoting cat health, the scope of work, and also a statement of the problem.