

I have one-to-one lessons online by video chat with a teacher. I love it because I can practise all the English words I've learnt, and it's fun. We also look at grammar I get wrong and vocabulary I need. You can talk about your life and what's interesting, and your teacher corrects the mistakes. Video lessons help you practise listening and speaking. Sometimes I'm tired, so that can be a problem.