

Gossiping means talking about someone when they are not around. It is also forbidden in Islam. It may seem fun to share secrets or talk about others, but it's not pleasant. When we talk about someone behind their back, it can hurt their feelings if they find out. It can also make friends not trust each other anymore. It's always better to say nice things or nothing at all. Instead