

Social media is a powerful tool that influences various aspects of daily life and society.