PROCESS I used an AI tool to make a first draft, then I worked on it in Figma. I wrote the map names myself, drew the tree shape, and added small details like the cracks on the buttons. I picked a very dark background with red details, made the PLAY button the strongest thing on the screen, and showed the levels as numbered cards with stars. I kept the layout simple so nothing takes attention away from the Play button

Summarized by © lakhasly.com