

Nigeria has a robust and well-structured dental service structure. The beginning of modern dentistry in Nigeria was traced to Dr. Ewart Gladstone Maclean who established his Practice in Lagos in 1903. However, a comprehensive review of the history of dentistry in Nigeria was only recently put together in the book by Prof. Eyitope O. Ogunbodede.