

10–20 mg/dL higher than the results obtained by the enzyme method. Various hormonal and metabolic factors participate in achieving this balance.