

The Sun gives us light. Plants make their food with the help of sunlight. The sun rises early in the morning even before I get up. I like a sunny day as I can play outside with my friends. My mother dries our clothes in the sun. The sun rises in the East and sets in the West.