To finish our report we can say that authentication is the important part of digital security.Using Multi-Factor Authentication and biometrics like fingerprints is a better way to keep hackers away.The best plan for everyone is to use passwords and always turn on the extra security features on their apps.Even though passwords have problems because people choose easy ones they are still a big part of our life.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com