

A team leader plays a crucial role in fostering team dynamics by understanding the strengths and weaknesses of each team member, delegating tasks effectively, and managing emerging conflicts. They should also promote collaboration and ensure that everyone is on the same page to accomplish the team's goals.