Daniyah, 19 years old, female.after passing out during classes.She had drowsiness and generalized tiredness, and after IV administration of saline, she returned to classes and made an appointment with the doctor.Upon questioning when she came to the appointment, she reported an unquenchable thirst, a repeated need to urinate, dryness in the lip, and she couldn't concentrate during the class, also she felt stressed.she had repeatedly complained of severe weakness, dizziness, and sleepiness during the past 4 weeks.The doctor suggested to the patient the appropriate treatments for her type of diabetes, avoiding tension and pressure, exercising and some medications, and making an appointment after two months for follow-up and examinations.(Baseline body weight was 50, height 150cm).

Summarized by © lakhasly.com