

The proper internal and external environmental analysis has allowed Mercedes Benz's to structure its mission statement which indicates the future mobility of the organization in a sustainable and safe way along with exceptional products and services and trend-setting technologies. They will continuously strive to inspire consumer confidence by supplying a transparent atmosphere and offering a premium automobile product with individualized customer care.